

	EAC 2022 Activities (Annual Report to Council)
JAN	Book Review for "Nature's Best Hope" in The Swarthmorean; Discuss priorities for the upcoming year Native Plants, Environmental Code Updates (Ready for 100), Plastic Bag Ban
FEB	Feb. 2nd - Native Plant themed book club event in partnership with the library (Nature's Best Hope by Doug Tallamy) Ready for 100 Brainstorm with A Few Steps Apply for LSA funding?
MAR	March 31st -Q&A with Doug Tallamy in partnership with the Swarthmore Horticultural Society and Library CRC Clean Up @ CADES & LCC Research environmental code updates
APR	Present environmental code updates to Planning Commission; Activities report due to Borough Council
MAY	No Mow May
JUN	Home Eco-Audits: Partnership with the Swarthmore Horticultural Society to match a homeowner with a volunteer to walk around their property and help identify invasive species, offer native plant recommendations to support birds and pollinators, and provide resources for further information. 6/20-26 National Pollinator Week - Volunteer Recognition Event
JUL	Home Eco-Audits continue
AUG	Home Eco-Audits continue
SEPT	Promote/Recruit EAC, TC Members Discuss renewable energy and electricity contract w/ Bill Webb Gas Leaf Blower ban and/or education
OCT	Chair check in with members asking feedback about member's experience, role in the group. Confirm intent to continue to serve. Promote/Recruit EAC, TC Members Ready for 100 Ideas/Research
NOV	Promote/Recruit EAC, TC Members Ready for 100 Ideas/Research
DEC	Promote/Recruit EAC, TC Members Ready for 100 Ideas/Research